Management of Conflict of Interest of the Board of the Directors

Each member of the Board of Directors was prohibited from taking and/or receiving personal gain either directly or indirectly from the Company's activities, other than remuneration and other legal facilities, which were determined based on the resolution of the GMS. Members of the Board of Directors were prohibited from using the Company for personal, family and/or other party interests that might harm or reduce the Company's profits.

A member of the Board of Directors was prohibited from giving or offering or receiving, either directly or indirectly, anything of value to or from a customer or a government official to influence or as a reward for what he had done and other actions, in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations. Every member of the Board of Directors who personally in any way, either directly or indirectly, had an interest in a transaction, contract or contract proposed in which the Company was a party must be declared the nature of his interest in a Board of Directors Meeting and therefore had no right to participate in voting on matters relating to the transaction or contract.

In the event of a Conflict of Interest, i.e. a certain condition in which the economic interest of the Company conflicts with personal economic interest, the Board of Directors members shall always:

1. Prioritize the Company's interest and not prejudice the Company's economic interest in the event of any conflict of interest.
2. Avoid making decisions in any situation and conditions where there is a conflict of interest.
3. Disclose any decision required to be taken in the event of conflict of interest.
4. In the event granting loans to the Board of Directors members, the loans shall be based on the reasonable limits in accordance with the Bank's provisions without discriminating other customers (arm's length basis).
5. Report the Company's share transactions within 3 (three) workdays.
